

OUT & ABOUT

MUSIC

MARCH 24 & 25

Local musicians showcase their talent on the KWV Sound Stage over the weekend. Eric Omba, Congolese Rumba artist, entertains the crowd to his feet-tapping and chanting tunes on Saturday and Sunday it's the turn of ASWEETA who incorporate elements of local coastal music with world music, folk and blues with an original twist.
 Venue: Bay Harbour Market, 31 Harbour Road, Hout Bay
 Times: 9.30am – 4pm (Saturday and Sunday)
 Cost: Free entry
 Contact: call 083 275 5586

MARCH 25

Enjoy an afternoon of Spanish Song and Dance with The Fand Sawyer Song Collection.
 Venue: Erin Hall, Rondebosch
 Time: 3pm
 Cost: R100

MARCH 28 & 29

Catch Adam Tas as he performs his unique way of blending heartfelt lyrics and music into something that grabs a hold of you and speaks straight to your soul.
 Venue: Die Boer theatre restaurant, Durbanville
 Time: 8.30pm
 Cost: R130
 Book: call 021 979 1911 or see www.dieboer.com

MARCH 29

Enjoy an evening of soulful sounds, candle lit dinner and the best of Erykah Badu, including a mash-up of original South African music by the likes of BloO Minors, Anita-kinyi, Postman L and M.L.A., THEAT Networks, a female run start-up which aims to uplift the creative community by bridging the gap between artists and the companies who need their services, host their first public event showcasing some of the talent by newly signed artist Antakhyi.

 Venue: Nomad Bistro
 Time: 8pm
 Cost: R50
 Book: Webtickets

APRIL 4 - 7

Singer-songwriter Jennifer Ferguson performs a series of four encores concerts called JENNIFER #weto, featuring special guest artists Zolani Mahola and Tina Schouw, both who have been activists in their own rights. Some of Cape Town's best musicians, including Mark Franzman, Roman Skillen and Shann Jacobs and a special appearance by the Cape Town Youth Choir's Vocal Ensemble, will join Jennifer on stage. Hall, from 4 to 7 April, at 8pm.
 Venue: Baxter Concert Hall
 Time: 8pm
 Cost: R195
 Book: Webtickets

APRIL 8

Break away from the hustle of the city and spend the day with friends and family enjoying delicious wine, bubbly and food and great music by Goodluck – all set on the lawns of one of Stellenbosch's oldest wine estates! A festive food market is set up on the estate's lawns with a variety of food options, perfectly complemented by wines to tantalise the taste buds. Live music by Goodluck is sure to add to the jubilant atmosphere. The dedicated children's village keep the little ones entertained, giving parents time to relax and enjoy the celebration.
 Venue: Vergenoeg Low Wine Estate, Baden Powell Drive, Stellenbosch
 Time: 11am
 Cost: R150
 Book: Webtickets

FOOD AND DRINK

MARCH 28 - APRIL 7

Take your family to the first fun-filled Punderland Festival, an expo designed especially to entertain kids with 29 themed fun zones, magicians, music, illusionists, comedy, dancers and much more.
 Venue: GrandWest
 Time: open daily
 Cost: from R250
 Book: Computicket or at the door

APRIL 14 & 15

Take two iconic products, mix in live music and gourmet eats, place it at Boland wine farm and you got the annual Pinotage and Biltong Festival.
 Venue: Perdeberg Cellar
 Time: 11am – 5pm
 Cost: R200 or R230 at the gate
 Book: see www.plankton.mobi or www.computicket.com
 Contact: see www.evomarketing.co.za

THEATRE

MARCH 27 - April 28

The Road To Mecca tells the story of a woman's desire for personal and artistic freedom within the narrow confines of a conservative and highly religious community in the Karoo in early seventies apartheid South Africa. The production stars Sandra Prinsloo, Marius Weyers and Emily Child.
 Venue: Fugard Theatre
 Time: 8pm
 Cost: from R130 – R230
 Book: Computicket or Fugard Theatre box office on 021 461 4554

APRIL 5 & 8

Catch Marion Holm in her one-woman show, Operasie Holm, as she shares the titters, teachings, trials and tribulations that the year brought in. Holm plays about 16 characters. Being financially strapped, road rage, dogs, Afrikaans and the struggle to survive daily are some of the fun topics she touches on.
 Venue: Die Boer theatre restaurant, Durbanville
 Time: 8.30pm on April 5 and 1.30pm on April 8
 Cost: R130
 Book: Book on 021 979 1911 or www.dieboer.com

OTHER

April 5 - 21

Port Elizabeth artist Sarah Welmsley's exhibition, Absence and Presence: in Search of Memory and the Imago, presents her Masters exhibition as a series of figurative sculptures in the mediums of bronze, glass and resin, visually portraying absence and presence using the female body as an allegory.

 Venue: StateoftheART Gallery
 Time: open daily
 Cost: free entry
 Contact: email jennifer@stateoftheart-gallery.com

LIST YOUR EVENT

Send details to arglet@inl.co.za with subject line Event Listing. The Cape Argus reserves the right to publish events we deem fit.